

IBAC Bulletin 09-02

UK DEFRA Announces delay in date for filing of Operator Emissions Plans for European Union Emissions Trading Scheme (ETS)

Regarding the 31st August 2009 deadline for the submission of emissions monitoring plans to the UK Department of Environment, Food and Regional Affairs (DEFRA), on 7 July 2009 DEFRA announced that this deadline has been delayed.

The announcement is posted at;

<http://www.defra.gov.uk/environment/climatechange/trading/eu/pdf/090706-aviation-ets.pdf>

Operator Emission Plans for the UK are not required to be submitted until approximately the end of November 2009. Final dates will be announced here, and information with respect to other EU State submission dates will be announced if changes are evident.

9 July 2009